

Hello, everyone, my name is Jessie Wall, and I am interested in the position of Historian. First I would like to congratulate you on your membership in National Honor Society. National Honor Society is nationally renowned as, (quote) "... the nation's premier organization established to recognize outstanding high school students...". It took determination and dedication to get to where you are today. But with that same determination and dedication we can make National Honor Society something more than another bullet point to add to your list of extracurriculars slated for college applications. It's about what we can do for our school, our community, and our nation. It's about the impact we can have and the lives we can change. But I'm not here to tell you about your service, I'm here to tell you how I can serve you.

The position of Historian is one lacking in the past that I believe has great potential. As a candidate for this position, I believe I am the person best suited for the duties and responsibilities of the historian. National Honor Society is very active in the community, but to this point no one has been here to document this service for the public. In a sense, much of our effort has gone unrecorded. With me as the historian this will no longer be the case. I am very skilled with a camera due to be extensive traveling, documentary producing, and movie making. I also own my own camera that I can use to capture high quality photographs that show the true nature of the events and National Honor Society as a whole. In the writing aspect, I am a skilled and frequent writer, and that writing ability would compliment the pictures. It would be my goal as the Historian to be at every National Honor Society event in order to document the depth of our service but also the breadth of it. The photographs and writing I gather would be published in order to spread knowledge of the dedication and commitment of this group. As you can see, I am extremely qualified for this position, and as a candidate I am very dedicated to the potential that the position holds. So, I hope you will check off Jessie Wall for Historian on your ballot, and if you do, I will not let you down.
